

Little Acorns Forest Schools Ltd

Equality and Inclusion Policy

During a Forest School session:

- All children and adults will be treated equally regardless of ability, age, gender, culture or race.
- Where possible, adjustments will be made to accommodate children with allergies, medical conditions or behavioural issues.
- All children will be included in all activities in a nurturing and caring environment.
- A range of different learning styles will be used to help promote independence during the activities.
- All those participating will be made to feel that their experiences and contributions are worthwhile.
- The value of working together harmoniously will be promoted, respecting others views and ideas.
- Forest School is a child led experience and wherever possible the children will be
- Allowed to follow their own interests providing they show respect for each other and the woodland area.
- Inclusion and equality will run through all forest school activities.

Policy written by: Kate Morison (Lead Practitioner)

Date Created: November 2023

Reviewed January 2026